The QH Newsletter has changed!

We have redesigned our Newsletter to ensure that the right recipients obtain the right information.

Divided between the brands QH, Klarius and Friesen, we have now introduced two new categories. The category "Productive" contains information on new additions and supplements to our range which are available with immediate effect and products which were previously in the preparatory stage and are now in stock and available ex warehouse.

The category "Informative" keeps you up to date in a compact a clear manner, with information on technology, marketing, innovations and advertising.
